CCHS Presents the 36th Annual Gallery of Wreaths

Online Auction and Exhibition , Nov. 27-29, 2020

---

(COLUMBIA COUNTY, NY) November 22, 2021

A Columbia County tradition - the 36th Annual Gallery of Wreaths Now an Online Auction! Wreaths created by local community members, organizations, and artists will be on display at an Online Auction.

Join us as we celebrate the Holiday Season Online!

Live, dried, artificial and mixed media wreaths will be donated by artists, friends, and area businesses to be auctioned with all proceeds specifically dedicated to help support the Fourth-Grade Field Trips to CCHS Rural Properties--the c.1850 Ichabod Crane Schoolhouse and the 1737 Luykas Van Alen House--for all Columbia County Fourth-Grade schoolchildren, called a 'Day of History'.

The holiday wreaths silent auction is an important fundraiser, with all proceeds specifically dedicated to help support the County Fourth-Grade Student Field Trips, a 'Day of History'.

This is an annual fundraising event for the CCHS; all wreaths are donated to be sold in the holiday silent auction. Guests bid on wreaths all weekend, and are encouraged to bookmark the page to keep an eye on their favorite wreaths.

The online auction closes on Sunday afternoon at 4:00pm.
Winners will be notified on 29th November beginning at 4:30pm.
Winners may remove their wreaths by Advance Appointment before December 5th.

Bids are accepted in the Annual Gallery of Wreaths
Online Exhibition & Online Auction

Wreaths will be displayed online only, and the auction will be held entirely online.
An annual treat, a crocheted afghan lap blanket handmade by Volunteer, Vieve Gaye will also be available for bidding.

Winning bidders will make advance arrangements to pick up their wreath. Pick-up location will be a CCHS property in Kinderhook, to be announced closer to the auction date.

ABOUT CCHS

Founded in 1916, the Columbia County Historical Society collects, preserves, interprets, and presents the history, heritage, and culture of Columbia County, New York, and serves residents of all eighteen towns and the City of Hudson. A vital community resource, CCHS collections include important and unique paintings, textiles, furniture and decorative arts, archives, maps and genealogical materials, and four distinct historic properties relating to Columbia County's heritage.

In recent years, CCHS has sustained a range of programs: the award-winning magazine Columbia County History & Heritage; the Drive Through History road trip series; annual 'Day of History' field trips for County fourth-graders; recurring lecture series; and exhibitions in the museum galleries. CCHS is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization chartered by the New York State Department of Education.
