Though not quite popular in his lifetime, author James Agee's literary merit skyrocketed after his death in the 1950's. This talk by Ben Feldman, writer of essays, film criticism, book reviews about New York City, American history and Yiddish culture have appeared online and in print. Ben will discuss Agee's life and legacy, with special attention being brought to his family home in Hillsdale, NY.

ABOUT CCHS

Founded in 1916, the Columbia County Historical Society Museum & Library collects, preserves, interprets, and presents the history, heritage, and culture of Columbia County, New York, and serves residents of all eighteen towns and the City of Hudson. A vital community resource, CCHS collections include important and unique paintings, textiles, furniture and decorative arts, archives, maps and genealogical materials, and four distinct historic properties relating to Columbia County's heritage.

In recent years, CCHS has sustained a range of programs: the award-winning magazine Columbia County History & Heritage; recurring lecture series; annual Day of History' field trips for County fourth-graders; and exhibitions in the museum galleries. CCHS is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization chartered by the Board of Regents, New York State Department of Education.
